CMA Review Course scholarship

All students attending colleges or universities in the Wild West Council region* as of April 2013 are invited to apply for a scholarship to be awarded by the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) Wild West Council. The scholarship recipient will receive CMA Review Course Materials provided by Gleim and free attendance to the Live CMA Instructor-Led Review Course in Phoenix, Arizona. Scholarship recipients will be selected from the pool of applicants based upon academic achievement, work experience, involvement in professional activities, and response to the essay question. The scholarship is open to candidates that currently do not have Gleim materials. Candidates must have taken at least 6 credit hours in the most recent school term.
